to Becker's.

Joseph J. McKenns, who was consected last week of the murder of sixour-old Segrid Ekstrom, whom he transled to death and concealed her ody in the cellar of the apartment house there he lived in the Bronx, was senmoded to death to-day by Judge Roalsky, in General Sessions Court, to die he same week as Becker, Dec. 2.

When McKenns has a criminal record. He served a year in Castle Williams, on Governor's sland, for desertion from the United States Army, and did a "bit"
on Blackweil's Island for a larceny
"job" in this city.

Several children living in the neighborhood of his home in the Bronx told the police that McKenna had been in the habit for months of giving them pennies. eer-old Segrid Ekstrom, whom he trangled to death and concealed her body in the cellar of the apartment house where he lived in the Bronz, was sen-bis sister on the steps of No. 1977 waiting for a man who had promised to give her a penny for candy. McKenna had disappeared when the police sought him, but on June 10 he was arrested in Mount Vernon for vagrancy and was turned over to the New York police.

Given the "third degree" by Police Captain Price, McKenna admitted that he had frequently given little girls in the neighborhood pennies for fondling them. He said then that he had been sitting on the steps of the house, where he was steps of the house, where he was edy Co., 5280 P. O. Square, Cincinnati, O.

living with his brother-in-law, Alexander Carroll, when the child passed and that he had offered her a penny.

GAUGHT IN A LIE ABOUT CAUSE

"I took her up in my arms," he said,
"and carried her into the hallway. As she struggled to get away from me she felt to the floor and her head hit on the stone pavement. I say she was dead and I put her in the coal bin." An autopsy by Coroner's Physician Dr. Reigelman revealed that there had been no blow on the girl's head, but that death had been caused by strangula

McKenna admitted to the detectives that when the child's absence was first noted he led her father, John Eckstronf, carpenter, on a wild-goose chasthrough vacant lots on the pretense of hunting for the missing girl. 'He also hunting for the missing girl. He also confessed that only an hour before the body was found he had agreed with Eckstrom's, expressed belief that his daughter had been murdered. When the boy was being taken away McKenna, with cold-blooded deliberation, was standing in a nearby saloon drinking. McKenna never confessed the actual crime, saying he "didn't think" he had choked the gfri. The evidence against him was so conclusive that the jury was out only a short time before returning a verdict of murder in the first degree.

The girl had been strangled to death, but there was no evidence of another crime. The girl lived next door, with her parents, at No. 1079 Ogden avenue.

Suspicion first turned toward McKenna when the murdered child's little brother, Bdwin, told the police that he had left to do the work demanded of them. It is bit sizter on the steps of No. 1077 waiting for a man who had promised to give her a penny for candy. McKenna had disroun; count, fluid balmwort, I off,; and fincture rhus aromatic, 2 drams. Mix in water and give 10 to 15 drops one hour before meets.

"Miss Anna" writes: "I suffer with very severe headaches, which also affects my eyes. My throat and noatrils are affected by catarrh and my breath is very bad. Could you prescribe a cure?"

Answer: I have cured hundreds who suffer as you do by prescribing the following and have received many letters from grateful people, which indicates that it is speedify curative: Purchase a 2 or, original jackazer of vilane powder; to a pint of warm water sold one-half tesspoonful and souff the water from the paim of the hand through the most risk two or three times a day or until they are thoroughly cleaned; then apply well up into the noatrils two or three times a day or until they are thoroughly cleaned; then apply well up into the noatril twice daily the following catarrh balm: To one level tesspoonful of vilane powder add one ounce of land or vaseline. If used according to the above incertifution your catarrh should soon sanish. This should be used occasionally to prevent its return.

"Mildred K." says: "Please advise what I can use for a mod half toule. My hair and acab as it is very bad condition and nothing seems to help."

Answer: The best hair toule on the market is sold in 4 oz, jura and is called plain vellow mittool. Any up-to-date draugist will have it. This is superior to snipthing known for the treatment of the diseases of the hair and acady. Two or three applications have been known to cure, while it makes the lair soft, fluffy and makes it keep its natural color.

"Jane" writes: "My nerves are in a dreadful condition, my appetite is very poor and I am extremely thin. My face is so thin that it makes me very unhappy. I should like you to tall me at true remedy."

Answer: If you wish to become stouter, improve your appetite and your nervous system. I heartily recommend the use of three grain hypo-nuclane tablets improve the nutrition, add ending of polassium; sodium salecylate

"Speaker" writes: "I am troubled with a techning servation after speaking, which is accompanied with a slight cough and hoarsens. Can I get relief!

Answer: You will not only be relieved, but you will be cured by using the following: Ask your druggist for a 2 to ox, bottle of escance mentio-lakene, This can be taken pure or can be made into a full pint of cough greup. Full directions are given on the bottle for making. This is very easily made at home and is perfectly safe, as it does not estain any harmful ingredients, as do most of the so-called cough cures.

"Ida" writte: "I have suffered with stomach promise and constitution for about two years, and I fear it will cause appendicting if I cannot get some relief."

Answer: I recommend that you get tablets trioseptine and take a pink tablet after treatment and is widely prescribed for its gradual curative action. Continue this treatment and is widely prescribed for its gradual curative action. Continue this treatment for several weeks and I am sure you will be cured.

Doctor: Several years ago I took a tonk-which you prescribed for me, but it has been so long that I have forgathen the ingredients. It was the best herve and aystem tonk that I ever took. Will you kindly publish the ingredients again."

Answer: The mid I always prescribe for poops in your or altion its: Syrup of hypophophites comp., a cap; tincture cadomene comp., i or. Shake well and take a teaspoontal before meals. This is the best nerve and system tone to the line of a quick and safe remedy."

Answer: Your excessive weight need not came you any unhappy and safe remedy."
